

Problem 2

$\text{ackerman}(m - 1, \text{ackerman}(m, n - 1))$

The key to showing that X is not primitive recursive is to find properties shared by all primitive recursive functions, but not by X . One such property is in showing that X in some way “grows” faster than any exponential, polynomial, multiple exponential, or primitive recursive functions.